Nursing Excellence Continues at EAC

Eastern Arizona College's Nursing Program continues to maintain excellence in preparing nurses for great careers. Most recently, EAC became the only nursing school in Arizona to be awarded the title "Center of Excellence" by the National League for Nursing.

"Our students have been the most important focus in our program," stated Carolyn McCormies, EAC director of nursing and division chair for Nursing and Allied Health. "This designation underscores our faculty's commitment to exceptional outcomes in socializing students, professional involvement, and lifelong learning and creativity. We are humbled to be recognized by our peers alongside other prestigious programs throughout the nation."

The EAC Nursing Program is continuously evaluating how to improve its classroom and clinical instruction to provide the best preparation for its nursing students. One result that stems from continuous improvement is the 100 percent pass rate that many EAC nursing classes have received on the National Council Licensure Examination that is used to determine whether or not a candidate is prepared for entry-level nursing practice.

Another result of continuous improvement is the accreditation received from the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) that EAC received two years ago. "ACEN accreditation is a symbol of excellence that assists our students in continuing their educational goals by making their nursing credits more universally transferable and helping them to more easily find positions upon graduation," said McCormies.

Sixteen nursing programs nationwide, across the academic spectrum of higher education in nursing and leading teaching hospitals and clinical sites, were designated as NLN Centers of Excellence. Award recipients were formally recognized during the Honors Convocation at the 2018 NLN Education Summit on Friday, September 14. The annual Summit draws a capacity crowd of nurse faculty, deans, administrators, and professionals from allied health organizations.

Congratulations to the nursing staff, alumni and partnering hospitals that have made this success possible. They truly have met the need for well-trained and competent caregivers.

About EAC's Nursing Program

For more than 30 years, EAC's Nursing Program has prepared students for immediate entry into the workforce and for pursuing advanced practice, leadership, administration, education and research roles. Graduates can be found working almost anywhere – hospitals, communities, schools, homes, and battlefields – positively impacting the quality of healthcare delivery. The program features concurrent enrollment programs with Arizona State University and Northern Arizona University, allowing students to obtain a bachelor of science in nursing while completing an associate degree. The baccalaureate program offers hybrid classes, highly qualified faculty, and special reduced tuition rates for EAC students. Prospective students are encouraged to contact the program at admissions@eac.edu or 928-428-8272.

EAC Nursing Professor Amy Ollerton provides instruction to Chanelle Arpon, Jonathan Orr, and Randi Estrada, all students in the concurrent enrollment program.

Kate McCluskey Inducted to Hall of Fame

Three EAC athletic teams earned berths in their national tournaments last spring - men's golf, women's tennis, and women's softball. And to top it off, EAC's Coach Kate McCluskey was inducted into the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference Hall of Fame.

The EAC men's golf team won the Region 1 Tournament. The team then continued on to the NJCAA National Championship where they finished 15th. Sean Mullan, an EAC student from London, England, was named First Team PING All American, First Team District One, First Team All-Conference and ACCAC Player of the Year (the second player from EAC to receive this honor). Brodie Whitbread, from Adelaide, South Australia, was named First Team District One and Second Team All-Conference. Vladislav Marinov, from Sofia, Bulgaria, was named Second Team All-Conference. All three sophomore players are moving on to continue their college golf careers. Sean Mullan will play at Illinois State University, Conor Cull will play at Lander College, and Vladislav Marinov will attend West Texas A & M. Coach Davis gained his second Division One Coach of the Year Award.

EAC's tennis team completed play at the National Tournament and finished 18th. Congratulations to Heidi Simons for making it to the finals of the consolation bracket. Polly Evans and Payton Cap made it to the semifinals of the consolation bracket. Number two doubles, Payton Cap and Polly Evans, and #3 doubles, Ashlyn Trejo and Heidi Simons, also made it to the semifinals of the consolation bracket. Coach Duane DeSpain was named one of four finalists for National Coach of the Year for the Intercollegiate Tennis Association.

EAC's softball team won the Region 1 Tournament and headed into the Division 1 National Championship seeded #7. They won the first two rounds and ultimately finished in 5th place in the nation! Post season awards went to Taylor Hollestelle as an NJCAA 2nd Team All-American. The National Fast Pitch Coaches Association All West Region 2nd Team included: Taylor Hollestelle, Lena Kotrys, Sala Pedebone, and Kendall Rauk. Coach Kate McCluskey was named ACCAC Coach of the Year.

In addition to being named Coach of the Year, Kate McCluskey was also inducted into the Arizona Community College Athletic Conference Hall of Fame. She joins other EAC Coaches who produced great programs for many years: Jerry Hekeia, Ladd Mulleneaux, and Chuck LaVetter.

Coach McCluskey is an alumna of Eastern Arizona College, graduating in 1982. She continued her education at Western New Mexico University, in Silver City, and received a Master of Administration in 1989. She took over as head softball coach in January of 1990 and has been coaching ever since. Coach Kate also runs the EAC Wellness Center, which offers exercise opportunities to our students and the local community.

Congratulations to all these athletes and coaches who represented EAC so well in competition throughout the United States.

EAC Class of 1968 Celebrates 50 Years!

Members of the Class of 1968 came from Arizona, Arkansas, California, Iowa, Minnesota, New Mexico, and Utah to gather at Eastern Arizona College. They met at the Gherald L. Hoopes, Jr. Activities Center to celebrate fifty years of progress since leaving EAC. After mingling, the alumni posed for pictures and then boarded a bus to tour the EAC campus.

After the tour, they drove to Discovery Park's Circle D Ranch for lunch, sharing college memories and life experiences. Reunion attendees participated in the 118th Annual Alumni Banquet where they were recognized and inducted into the Alumni Association Emeritus Club.

At each of EAC's reunions, alumni express their surprise at the beauty of the campus, what has changed, and especially how much their fellow classmates have changed and matured! Danielle Causey Palma, '07, Safford, Arizona, currently works at Mt. Graham Regional Medical Center as the Human Resources Generalist Lead. Danielle has been working at Mt. Graham Regional Medical Center since graduating from EAC. She is currently attending Western Governors University to obtain a degree in Human Resources Management. She has a Society of Human Resource Management Certified Professional certification. Her interests are education, her three daughters, and traveling.

university. Twenty years later, one by one, most of our children chose to come to EAC, and honestly, each one of them have so many fond memories of exceptional teachers, great staff they worked with in their student jobs, good quality friends, and education experiences that have been preparation for life in a very meaningful way. EAC has been a blessing for all of us."

Patty's daughter Destiny, '10, and sons Micah, '11, and Abram, '12, each attended Eastern Arizona College. Her son Jonas, '19, is attending EAC now. The family returned to campus last spring for the Dr. Bruce Bishop Choral Reunion and had a great time with the many choir students who attended.

DeVar Brown, '59, Phoenix, Arizona, came to EAJC from Thatcher High School in the fall of 1953. He attended for a year and a half. He enjoyed his time at EAJC, which included playing football with Coach Wally Nalder. The team had great seasons and was ranked 7th in the nation at the end of 1954. He served in the US Navy and in submarine crews based out of San Diego, California, and New London, Connecticut, until December 1958. He returned to EAJC and graduated in

DeVar met his wife, Phyllis Wingfield, in Phoenix, Arizona, and they raised a son and daughter as he started a new career as a truck driver. He hauled livestock for about twenty years in California. Later they moved to Colorado and hauled freight. They returned to Phoenix and enjoyed retirement and time with eight grandchildren and twenty great-grandchildren. After forty years of marriage, Phyllis passed away from cancer on Aug. 13, 2007.

Amey E. Durfee Zeigler, '99, Austin, Texas, attended EAC in the fall of 1996 on a theater scholarship. She completed a creative writing class from Dr. Cozzens and started writing seriously ten years ago. Baker's Dozen, her first novel, is published with The Wild Rose Press. It's a clean, romantic suspense available at Amazon. Com. In Baker's Dozen, Twenty-three-year-old investigative journalist Andy Miller is armed with many disguises and creativity to take down the riff-raff of St. Louis. When her stepbrother is murdered by the mob, Andy soon discovers she's out of her depth. Enter Hugh Donaldson who has reasons of his own for discovering the murderer. He'll use everything in his power to achieve that, including lying to Andy about his past. As clues disappear and the body count climbs, Andy and Hugh must trust each other and use their combined skills to bring the murderer to justice.

Margrieta Zalmans Sepp, '51, Sierra Vista, Arizona, came to the United States with her family as they escaped Latvia when the Soviets re-occupied their country

Patty Valdez Yarbrow, '83, Paulden, Arizona, came to EAC 35 years ago and had no idea it would become a family tradition. "I had Mr. Dave Lunt as my high school choir director, and after he came to teach at EAC, he reached out and invited me to come join the music program. My aunt and uncle, Karen & Don, and their six children, lived in Thatcher. Thanks to these good people, I was able to begin making some incredible memories here. I got a top-notch education with teachers who cared personally about the success of each student, and I filled my two years with extraordinary college opportunities that I never would have had at a huge after pushing the Germans out. She says, "Life under German occupation was not as bad as the Soviet occupation." Her sister came to Thatcher earlier to work for a pilot, and the family soon followed. Margrieta and her brother, Janis Zalmans, '51, attended EAJC together with financial support from local families. Margrieta attended her second year at EAJC while living at the residence of faculty member, Florence Talley Holladay, '30.

After graduating at Eastern, Margrieta married Sulev Sepp whom she met on the ship coming from Europe. Sulev was leaving Estonia for the same reasons as the Zalman family. The couple moved to California where Sulev joined the National Guard. His unit was activated soon after and he enlisted in the Air Force. They served in many places, including: Oklahoma, Colorado, California, Germany, Nevada, Washington and Tucson. After retiring from the Air Force, the Sepps lived in Munich, Germany, for many years as Sulev worked in a civil service position. The Sepps raised two sons and a daughter and are grateful for the start Margrieta received at EAJC.

Richard Salvador, '85, Honolulu, Hawaii, left his home in the small Island state of Palau to attend college. He describes his experience, "I sort of grew up and became a man while attending EAC!! I miss EAC and Thatcher so much. I found myself and I found God there. I will forever be grateful for what EAC did for me and gave me."

Richard went on to complete a Bachelor of Arts degree in political science at Brigham Young University – Hawaii and a Master of Arts degree in political science at the University of Hawaii. He has been involved in various regional (Pacific), national and international activities relating to nuclear disarmament. He served as a member of the Coordinating Committee of the Abolition 2000: A Global Network to Abolish Nuclear Weapons. In his various capacities as convenor of Indigenous Peoples' Participation at

She met William "Bill" Cloudt, '71, during her second year of college, and they were married at the end of the school year. The couple moved to Las Cruces, New Mexico, to attend New Mexico State University where Bill completed a degree in Agricultural Education in 1973. Nancy later completed her degree from NMSU as well. The couple raised two daughters while living in different locations in New Mexico. They did some teaching and ranching and now are owners of the Rodeo Grocery & Café. The Cloudts have three grandchildren. Nancy's brother Kenneth Calloway, '77, and sisters Barbara Calloway Walker, '73, and Donna Calloway Geisler, '78, also attended Eastern.
